Were the peace treaties of 1919-23 fair?

What were the motives & aims of the Big Three at Versailles?

Paris Peace Conference

January - June 1919

World War I

Allies

France, Britain,
Russia & USA

Central Powers

Germany, Turkey,
Austria-Hungary

Areas of fighting Gallipoli

Allies attacked Turkey to force Turkey out of the war, to reopen supply routes to Russia & to attack Austria from the south. It was a disaster and the Allies had to retreat.

War at Sea

Neither the British or Germans wanted a big sea battle. After the Battle of Jutland the German ships returned to port and stayed there for the rest of the war. The German submarines (U-boats) attacked ships supplying Britain from the USA. Attacking US ships meant the US entered the war in 1917.

Western Front

German, British & French armies met in France and Belgium. Soon there was stalemate and both sides dug trenches. Millions of soldiers died fighting on the Western Front.

Conference aims:

1. to decide on the terms of the peace
2. to sign peace treaties with the central powers

Attendees: Countries who had won the war (27)

Those that were not allowed to attend: Russia - it had surrendered to the Germans in 1917

The Central Powers - Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey & Bulgaria

Of the 27 countries that attended the conference, three had the most power:

The Big Three:

USA: President Woodrow Wilson

France: Prime Minister George Clemenceau

Britain: Prime Minister David Lloyd George

1.3

France

Prime Minister George Clemenceau nicknamed 'The Tiger'

The French people wanted revenge. The fighting had destroyed farms, factories and towns in France, killed and wounded over 3 million

Revenge: Germany to pay for the war

Punish: humiliate Germany by taking land & blame them for the war

Britain

Prime Minister David Lloyd George

The British people wanted revenge, but Lloyd George did not want to punish too harshly or Germany might become communist or get revenge later.

Peace: less powerful army & navy for Germany

Punish: take away German colonies

1.4

1.5

USA

President Woodrow Wilson

Peace: 'Fourteen Points' including:

- . no more secret treaties . countries have less weapons & smaller armies .
- . self-determination - people choose their leaders, not ruled by other countries, including colonies . France to regain Alsace-Lorraine .

Were the peace treaties of 1919-23 fair?

What was the impact of the peace treaty on Germany?

Treaty of Versailles - Germany

Nobody was happy with the final settlement because:

1. All the different countries had their own ideas
2. There were lots of problems to deal with
3. The German people were starving whilst the conference was meeting
4. Decisions had to be made quickly - they ran out of time

A compromise was reached but:

- . France thought Germany was not punished enough
- . Britain thought it was too tough on Germany
- . USA wanted its ideas on world peace to be used
- . Germany hated the Treaty and soon wanted revenge

PUNISHMENT FOR GERMANY

Were the peace treaties of 1919-23 fair?

What were the consequences of the Treaty for Germany?

Consequences - Germany

GERMAN ANGER

DIKTAT

Germans called the Treaty the 'dictated peace'. This means the Germans were told what their punishment was.

LAND

Germans were angry that their country was split into two and foreign soldiers were in the Rhineland & Saar areas.

RESOURCES

Germany was angry that 74% of its iron ore & 26% of its coal was taken away.

FAIRNESS

Germany was angry that it was punishment more harshly than others and its armed forces were made to be very weak.

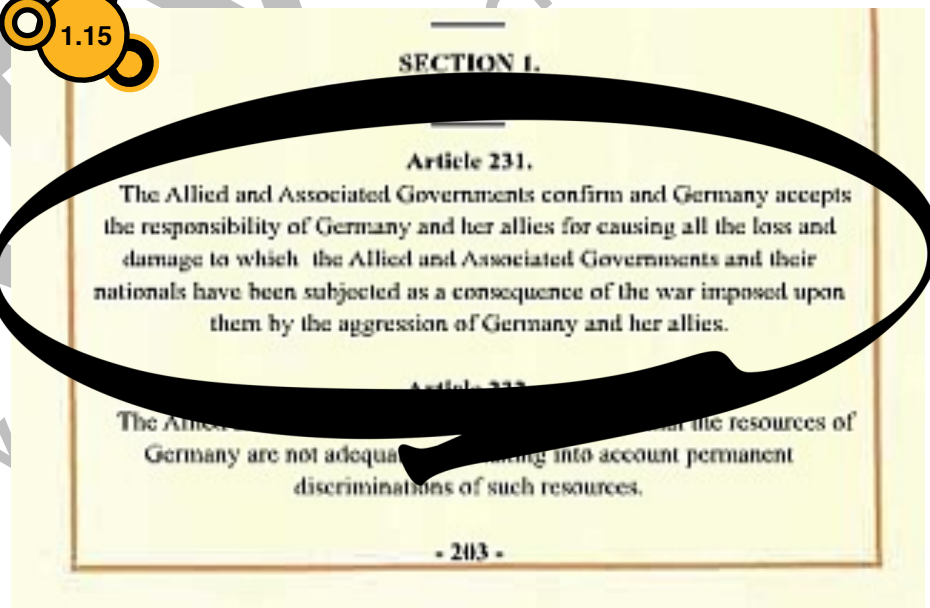

Only Germany was stopped from uniting with its own people in Austria.

1.14

FOR the Treaty

1. Keep Germany weak so it could not start another war
2. The war cost a lot of money and Germany should pay money to help other countries who borrowed money from the USA

1.15

1.16

AGAINST the Treaty

1. People in Germany will be poor and some even die
2. Germany will want revenge if punished too much
3. If Germany is weak the rest of Europe will suffer

Contemporary opinions about the treaties

1.23

a

"It was a peace of revenge. It sowed a thousand seeds from which new wars might spring. It was as though the Devil had sat beside Clemenceau and whispered madness into the ear of Wilson and grinned across the table at Lloyd George."

British historian, 1929

c

"This is not peace. It is an armistice for fifteen years."

Marshall Foch, French commander-in-chief of the Allied armies in 1917

e

The fundamental falsehood on which the Versailles Treaty is built is the theory that Germany was solely and entirely responsible for the war. No fair-minded student of the war and its causes can accept this idea; but the propaganda story of Germany's guilt has been said so often.... our people have come to regard it as the truth which justifies the provisions of the most brutal and unjust Treaty in the world's history.

USA Captain E. N. Bennett, speech at on 11th November, 1920

b

Lloyd-George

"... all a great pity. We shall have the same thing all over again in 25 years time at three times the cost."
